DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The abstract is objected to because it contains legal phraseology such as "means".

Applicant is reminded that an abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details. The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 22 is in improper form and fails to define the clear metes and bounds of the protection desired.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-4 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Menegus (US 3,968,765 A).

Menegus shows a wind driven sail craft having a displacement hull, a keel [20], and a hydrofoil means [33] adapted to lift to the stern of the craft. The hull is a mono hull having a tapered shape.

Applicant may note that any limitation followed by the term “when” is considered to be a conditional limitation. Therefore, re claim 3, if the craft were to be sailing extremely slowly, the hydrofoil would provide no lift to the stern. Similarly, if the craft were to be powered by a power propulsion means so as to move at a high speed, the hydrofoil would then provide substantial lift to the stern.

It is also noted that the use of the power propulsion means has not been positively recited in the claim and has been set forth merely in an intended use relationship.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 5-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record in the attached PTO Form 892, but not yet relied upon, is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

8. Examiner's Observations: Applicant is requested to consider the following broad interpretation of certain limitations, which are likely to be adopted by the examiner in the future Office actions.

- Applicant may note that a use of the limitation "hydrofoil means" can be broadly interpreted to mean any surface on the hull that is capable of providing a lift similar to one provided by a hydrofoil. The meaning of "hydrofoil means" is not restricted to a foil structure alone.

- Further, it is also noted that by setting forth a limitation "hydrofoil means adapted to lift the stern", the claims do not necessarily exclude a lift for the fore portion of the hull. In other words, the hydrofoil is not required to provide exclusive lift to the stern alone.
